BATH CITY CENTRE GUIDE

Don't miss out on these highlights! Use our guide and discover the places in bath that make our city unque.

- The Royal Crescent and the Circus
Two of the most striking masterpieces of Georgian architecture. Tour No.1 Royal Crescent for a demonstration of Georgian life, and enjoy the shops of Margaret's Buildings, nestled between the two famous streets.
- George Street and Bartlett Street
A host of vibrant bars and late-night spots, independent shops and Bath's largest antiques centre.
- Walcot Street
Bath's 'Artisan Quarter', with a treasure trove of unique shops, restaurants and glassblowing studio.
- Milsom Street to SouthGate
The main thoroughfare, running from the bus station to the stylish Milsom Street, with designer names, high street favourites and independent retailers.
- Broad Street and High Street
Filled with home furnishings, fashion and independents. Don't miss Milsom Place, Guildhall Market and Victoria Art Gallery.
- Green Street, Quiet Street and New Bond Street
Home to stylish shops, perfumeries and skincare boutiques.
- The Corridor, Northumberland Place and Union Passage
Discover Bath's smallest pub, bustling cafés and unique shops.
- Cheap Street and Westgate Street
This historic thoroughfare has a delightful mix of shops, independents and bars, connecting the cultural heart of the city.
- Bath Abbey Quarter
Right at the heart of Bath discover plenty of sweet treats, including fudge, chocolate, and Bath's two famous buns clustered around a 200 year old tree.
- Pulteney Bridge
Pulteney Bridge is one of only four bridges in the world with shops on both sides. Cross the bridge to Great Pulteney Street with The Holburne Museum at the end.
- Orange Grove and Parade Gardens
Discover the original Abbey church yard's restaurants and shops.
- Bath Abbey
Spectacularly illuminated over the Christmas period, step inside the Abbey to admire the wonderful architecture and windows. Shoppers carol services throughout December.
- The Roman Baths
The true source of Bath's popularity lies in its water, which can still be experienced at the Roman Baths.
- Thermae Bath Spa
Bathe in Bath's naturally warm, mineral-rich waters in a contemporary Spa.
- Sawclose
A centre of entertainment, home to the Theatre Royal, Komedia, indoor activities and great dining.
- Kingsmead Square
An attractive mix of restaurants and cafés.
- Green Park Station
Home to many of Bath's flourishing regular and speciality markets, and adjacent to a major supermarket.
- SouthGate Bath
The first stop for those stepping off the bus or train, SouthGate is home to favourite high street shops and restaurants.
- Widcombe Parade
Home to 2 great cultural institutions, The Natural Theatre Company and the Widcombe Social Club.
- Welcome Ambassador HQ
The home of our Welcome Ambassadors, the Bath BID office.
