

Welcome to Sally Lunn's Historic Eating House – home of the world famous Bunn..... that isn't really a Bunn!

We serve this all day menu until 6pm daily – you may order what you want at any time.
All we recommend is that you enjoy one of our world famous Bunsns either as part of a sweet treat, savoury snack or full meal.

Our menu requires a little explanation....

Essentially we divide our menu into Sweet and Savoury. The Bunn is wonderful with both sweet or savoury toppings and additions and comes alive when it is toasted – the flavours and aromas will stay with you for a long time. Perhaps this is why so many bakers have tried to replicate it the world over?

Opposite are our most popular combinations for different times of day.
This can be a good place to start if you are new to Bunsns!

Bunn Etiquette

We serve half a Bunn unless otherwise stated. You might get a top or a bottom – we tend to use tops for sweet Bunsns and bottoms for the savoury, although there is no rule. If there are two of you, why not ask for a top and a bottom so you get to try both?

The Bunn is generally eaten with a knife and fork but there are no fixed rules. Most guests enjoy their Bunn with a huge smile on their face. If for any reason your Bunn does not make you break into uncontrollable smiling then do please speak to a member of our team.

We want all our guests to be delighted; please tell us if you are not or if any portion of anything is insufficient - so we can bring more

Anything marked in our menu with † is available for sale in our museum shop.

Our Bunn is made to a secret recipe and so it is tricky to advise guests who are unable to eat certain foods but a few clues are possible... The Sally Lunn Bunn has wheat and contains both dairy and eggs.

It does not contain any meat, poultry or fish unless ordered with toppings that do.

We are sorry but due to the size and nature of our kitchens and bakery, we cannot guarantee that anything on this menu is completely free from nuts.

Gluten Free?

We take steps to ensure that anything marked as wheat free is as close to gluten free as we can manage.
However despite using good practice, procedures, separate baking trays etc. all products come from a bakery that uses a lot of flour and are prepared for you today in small kitchens.

The Bunn That Isn't a Bunn

We are famous for the Bath delicacy the Sally Lunn Bunn – the original Bath Bunn. A lot of people get confused between the London Bath Bunn [small, heavy and sweet] and a Sally Lunn Bunn. You are in the home of the original delicious Bunn that has been often copied and attempted in bakeries around the world for over 300 years.

Actually the word Bunn is an unhelpful description. There is no truly useful common English word to describe a Sally Lunn Bunn as it is part Bunn, part bread, part cake... A large and generous but very very light Bunn; a little like brioche/French festival bread....but traditionally it is a Bunn so, even if it isn't really a Bunn, let's call it a Bunn!

Sally Lunn Bunn Hot Trencher Dishes with a slice of Sally Lunn Bunn

Traditionally, a type of bread – known as “Trencher”- was used before the invention of plates. Unlike plates (invented around 1500), the Trencher bread gets its flavour from the food and is eaten as part of the meal. The use of Trencher breads remained popular in Georgian England, perhaps the most famous of all being the Sally Lunn Bunn, enjoyed at Sally Lunn’s for over 300 years.

Our historic Trencher dishes are served in this tradition on a trencher of Sally Lunn Bunn. All Trencher dishes include a plate!

Bunn History

Legend has it that Sally Lunn, a Huguenot refugee, came to this bake-house in 1680 and started to make a rich, round & generous 'Bunn' that was big but incredibly light and delicious. She made her Bunnns with fresh eggs, local butter and warm milk together with the skill she had learned making French brioche. In the days of Beau Nash the Bunn was served at the public breakfasts and afternoon teas. Sally Lunn Bunnns became so famous that the house began to be called after her. The recipe, found in a secret cupboard, is now passed on with the deeds of the house.

The House And Museum

The present house you largely see was erected around 1622 and built upon earlier houses. Our old bakery museum in the cellar is open every day.

Entry is free to all guests who take refreshment.

Here you will see evidence of early Medieval & Roman dwellings on this site and the oven it is believed Sally Lunn used back in 1680.
